

Izumi Kondo MD. PhD

Director of Hospital

National Center for Geriatrics and Gerontology (NCGG)

Director, Assistive Robot Center, NCGG

Affiliated Professor, Fujita Health University, Nippon Medical School

Prof. Kondo is a geriatrician and is working currently as the Director of Hospital, National Center for Geriatrics and Gerontology (NCGG) and he also manages the Assistive Robot Center (ARC) in NCGG. He is developing and validating numerous robots and related systems for the support of daily life of older adults and especially for patients with dementia and older adults with frailty.